

CONTRUST

Lecture Series

TRUST CONTEXTED

Winter semester 2022/23

Building "Normative Orders" | Room EG 01
Goethe University | Campus Westend
Max-Horkheimer-Str. 2 | 60323 Frankfurt/M

The event is open to the public. Participation via Zoom is also possible. Prior registration via frickel@em.uni-frankfurt.de is required.

- ▶ Taking an interdisciplinary perspective, international trust scholars will examine the dynamics of trust in conflict in diverse contexts. The program aims at providing a setting for unconventional and critical perspectives on current trust conceptions, theories and approaches.

Wednesday, October 26, 2022, 6-8 pm

Dr. Anindya Sekhar Purkayastha, Professor in the Department of English at Kazi Nazrul University, India and currently with School of Translation and Cultural Studies, Institute of Language Studies and Research, Calcutta, India

"Postcolonial perspectives on conflict and trustbuilding - Toleration, Mistrust and Samata: Transnational Anarchives"

Wednesday, November 9, 2022, 6-8 pm

Dr. Tiago Mata, Associate Professor in the Department of Science and Technology Studies at University College London, UK

"The political epistemology of American social movements, 1980s and 1990s"

Wednesday, December 14, 2022, 6-8 pm

Dr. Moira Weigel, Assistant Professor in the Department of Communication Studies at Northeastern University, USA

"Behind the Brown Box: Amazon Sellers, Global Supply Chains, and the Making of Monopoly"